

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
 Alexandria Division

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)

v.)

CHRISTOPHER ANDARYL WILLS)

Criminal No. 99-396-A

ORDER

Before the Court is the Motion of the United States for a Protective Order and its In Camera Supplement filed thereto, in which the United States requests a protective order allowing it to provide standby counsel and the defendant, pro se, with redacted copies of its witness list and Jencks material.

Having carefully considered the United States' Motion, we are fully satisfied that a protective order is unwarranted. Given the serious nature of the charges against the defendant, he must be given a fair opportunity to mount a full defense. Moreover, our July 31, 2001 Order provides adequate protection to the witnesses in that standby counsel are absolutely prohibited from divulging to defendant or anyone acting in concert with him any identifying information about any of the United States' witnesses until further Order of the Court.¹ Furthermore, the witnesses' complete addresses are not included on the list.

¹ Standby counsel may share the information with any court-authorized investigators who are working on this case, who are under the same prohibitions as standby counsel in that they may not share the information with anyone else.

For these reasons, the Motion of the United States for a Protective Order is DENIED; and it is hereby ORDERED that the United States provide forthwith unredacted copies of its witness list and Jencks material to standby counsel; and it is further ORDERED that to relieve standby counsel of the administrative burden of redacting the material for defendant, the United States provide defendant with complete copies of the Jencks material and witness list, redacting only all names and identifying information of potential witnesses.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this Order to defendant, pro se, defendant's standby counsel, Alan H. Yamamoto, Esq. and Jonathan Shapiro, Esq., and AUSAS Jim Trump and Kevin V. Di Gregory.

Entered this 7th day of August, 2001.

/S/

Leonie M. Brinkema
United States District Judge

Alexandria, Virginia